Course Description/Rationale:

This open course in Grade 11 allows students to broaden their knowledge and skills in visual arts. In this course, students are encouraged to produce a body of creative work that represents a progressive record of studio development in both technique and expression. They express ideas and feelings in personal imagery while analyzing their work and the works of others. Students examine historical and cultural contexts of Western art (including Canadian art) and art from various world cultures to support their study of specific media.
